Describe the Incident(s) in complete detail.

This human rights violation happened on May 7th 2019 near O--- village, Lay Po Htah village tract, Dwe Lo Township, Mutraw District [Hpapun District]. A 16-year-old novice monk was travelling to Ka Ma Maung Town by car with two other novices, a monastery administrator and a monastery driver. At 3:00 PM, they were stopped by BGF #1014 Corporal Saw Moe Hein at a BGF checkpoint along one of the motorways connecting O--- village and C--- village.

Corporal Saw Moe Hein then hit the 16-year-old novice in the head with the butt of his revolver, causing him an open wound. He alleged that he hit the novice because he grabbed his gun. Saw Moe Hein also confiscated the car, which is now being used by the BGF.

With the help of local villagers, the injured novice monk was taken to the Ka Ma Muang public hospital, where he received treatment for three days. The treatment was not supported by the BGF or any other organisation. Villagers living around the hospital provided food to the victim while he was receiving treatment. The local population is too afraid to talk about or report this incident because it involved a BGF Corporal.
